DESCRIPTION:

The property presents a rare opportunity for a purchaser to create something truly special, with considerable scope to extend, redevelop or replace the existing house with a bespoke family home, subject to the necessary planning permissions. In addition to the main residence, the grounds include a number of outbuildings, at least one of which we understand was historically used as a habitable dwelling. While these buildings are now in need of renovation and repair, they may offer further potential for alternative uses or redevelopment, subject to the appropriate consents.

Hollybush Ride is widely regarded as one of Finchampstead's most desirable addresses, offering a peaceful and established setting with direct access to nearby National Trust woodland and its network of attractive walking routes. Despite its tranquil surroundings, the property is conveniently positioned for access to both the M3 and M4 motorways, while also being within reach of a number of highly regarded local schools.

Everyday shopping and amenities are available in nearby Crowthorne and Wokingham, with more extensive retail, leisure and entertainment facilities in Bracknell and Reading. The area is particularly well served by an excellent selection of independent schools, including the prestigious Wellington College, situated less than two miles away. An abundance of leisure opportunities can also be found close by, including several outstanding golf courses, health clubs and spa facilities.
