LOCATION

East Kennett, lies approximately 5 miles west of the market town of Marlborough. The village is surrounded by the open rolling countryside of the Marlborough downs which offers excellent facilities for walking, cycling and riding. The long barrows of east and west Kennett are set on the edge of the village, with the world heritage site comprising Avebury and Silbury Hill close by. The popular market towns of Marlborough and Devizes are within easy reach providing an excellent range of day to day facilities. There is good local schooling in both the state and private sectors including a primary school in the village, St John's secondary school in Marlborough, Marlborough College and St Francis Preparatory in Pewsey. The areas' major commercial centres of Swindon, Salisbury and Newbury are within easy travelling distance.
