

Somerset Road, NW4

4 2 1

£750,000 Freehold

Tucked away on Somerset Road, this charming mid-terraced home combines a wonderfully private setting with an abundance of period-inspired character. A small front garden, framed by a low boundary wall and accessed via a metal gate, creates an appealing approach to the property. Inside, the current owners have thoughtfully embraced a classic Victorian aesthetic, with a tiled entrance hall, decorative embellishments, Victorian-style radiators, wooden floors, sash windows, iron fireplaces and elegant ceiling roses.

Winkworth

for every step...

The ground floor offers a welcoming entrance hallway, reception room, dining room, cloakroom and a kitchen-diner, providing versatile space for both everyday living and entertaining. Upstairs, there are four bedrooms and a family bathroom. To the rear, the private garden is designed for enjoyment and ease, with patio paving and gravel complemented by flowers, mature shrubs and established bushes that create a leafy, enclosed backdrop.

Hendon offers an excellent balance of residential calm and everyday convenience, with a wide choice of local shops, cafés, supermarkets and services close at hand. Hendon Central Underground station and Hendon Thameslink station provide straightforward connections into central London and beyond, while nearby road links offer further accessibility. Green open spaces, including Hendon Park and Sunny Hill Park, are within easy reach for recreation and weekend walks. Families are also well served by several schools within approximately half a mile, including St Joseph's Catholic Primary School, St Mary's and St John's CE School Primary and Sunnyfields Primary School; prospective purchasers should independently verify current Ofsted ratings, catchment eligibility and admissions arrangements.
