An Attractive Three-Bedroom Period Home in the Sought-After Hyde Cul-de-sac

This attractive red-brick period house is situated at Alswitha Terrace, a peaceful cul-de-sac in the ever-popular area of Hyde. The property is particularly well placed, being a short walk from Winchester's mainline railway station and the city centre, making it an especially desirable and convenient location, while also falling within catchment for St Bede Primary School and The Westgate School. Hyde is particularly popular for its convenient city location, with local green spaces and the recreation ground also close by.

Beautifully presented, the ground floor is arranged with a bay-fronted sitting room to the front, featuring fitted cabinetry, cornicing and a fireplace. There is a separate dining room beyond, while to the rear is the kitchen/dining room, fitted with a range of units and timber work surfaces and with space for a dining table. French doors open directly onto the garden terrace, making this a bright and practical space for everyday use. A cloakroom/WC completes the ground floor.

Upstairs there are three bedrooms and a family bathroom. The main bedroom sits to the front of the house and benefits from the bay window with ample space for freestanding bedroom furniture. There are two further bedrooms, while the family bathroom is fitted with a bath and shower over, vanity unit and heated towel rail.

To the rear is a south-facing paved terrace with space for outdoor seating and dining, leading onto a lawned garden bordered by established hedging, while there is a garden shed at the rear. The garden feels private and provides a good balance of terrace and lawn. Permit parking is available on the street, which, given the property's convenient location close to the town centre, is generally more accessible than in many comparable central locations.
