Having been in the same family occupation for the last forty years this three bedroom semi-detached family house is presented for sale in immaculate order throughout.

Meticulously maintained, the accommodation is bright, well-proportioned and complimented by a mature Southerly facing rear garden, large brick built workshop, garage and off street parking.

Positioned in a quiet, sought after turning, within easy access of Borehamwood High Street with its multitude of shops and restaurants and Thameslink station and close to places of worship including the synagogues in Croxdale Road and Theobald Street the property is ideal for both families and downsizers alike.
