ST GEORGES DRIVE, SW1V

£750,000

SHARE OF FREEHOLD

Set within an elegant stucco-fronted period building in the sought-after Pimlico Grid, this beautifully presented two-bedroom garden apartment combines generous proportions, period character and a private southwest-facing patio garden. Extending to approximately 900 sq ft, the property benefits from its own entrance, high ceilings and a share of freehold, offering an appealing home in one of Pimlico's most desirable residential settings.

The welcoming reception and dining room provides an inviting space for both relaxation and entertaining, with a large sash window, attractive fireplace surround and bespoke fitted cabinetry adding character and practicality. A separate contemporary kitchen features integrated appliances and opens directly onto the garden, creating a natural connection between the interior and outside space.
