THE OLD POST HOUSE, LONDON, SW1V

£1,150,000

SHARE OF FREEHOLD

A striking sense of volume defines this three bedroom maisonette within The Old Post House, where a double height dining area rises to a glass-fronted mezzanine sitting room above. The property extends to approximately 1,065 sq ft across the entrance, lower ground and mezzanine levels, creating an individual home with both architectural interest and flexible living spaces.

The entrance floor centres on a fitted kitchen and dining area, with a breakfast peninsula and tall sash windows lending light and scale to the space. Overlooking it, the mezzanine lounge offers extensive bookshelves and a fitted desk, an inviting place to relax or work while remaining visually connected to the room below.

Three bedrooms are arranged on the lower level, with two en suite facilities and a further shower room. Built in storage makes good use of the accommodation, while the lower floor windows look towards the lightwell areas. The separation of bedrooms from the striking upper living spaces gives the maisonette a distinctive and practical layout.
