Winkworth

for every step...

The property offers generous and well-balanced accommodation throughout, with a particularly spacious reception room featuring wooden herringbone flooring, good natural light and ample space for both living and dining. There is a separate modern kitchen fitted with sleek white units, integrated appliances and excellent worktop space.

Both bedrooms are well-proportioned doubles, with the principal bedroom being especially spacious and benefiting from a bright, calm outlook. The accommodation is completed by a contemporary bathroom with bath and shower over.

Further benefits include tasteful furnishings, attractive wooden flooring, good storage and access to a substantial rear garden, making this a comfortable and appealing home in a sought-after Putney location.

St John's Avenue is a desirable residential road in SW15, well placed for the amenities, transport links and green spaces of Putney and the surrounding area.
