DESCRIPTION

Foxglove Cottage is a beautifully presented and tastefully extended 2 bedroom semi-detached period cottage. Built c.1824 and situated in the delightful village of Norton St Philip, the property benefits from an array of features including exposed beams, plantation shutters throughout and a double door wood burner. The property also boasts flagstone flooring throughout the ground floor. There is a cosy open plan kitchen/dining room with stairs leading up to the first floor.

On the first floor there are two double bedrooms. Bedroom 1 has a stunning vaulted ceiling with velux windows allowing natural light to flood into the room. Bedroom 2 is also a comfortable double.

The property is accessed off the street via a small front garden leading to an entrance porch and then into the main reception area. There is a paved rear courtyard garden ideal for alfresco dining/an evening glass of wine.

LOCATION

Location: Foxglove Cottage occupies a convenient position in the centre of the popular village with amenities including the famous 'George' public house, church, primary school, pre-school, Co-op mini-supermarket and 2 farm shops). There are additional facilities in the nearby villages (including another excellent primary school and Railway Station in Freshford), there is a regular bus service to the centre of Bath (about 7 miles away), whilst the village stands on the edge of beautiful countryside.
