DESCRIPTION:

A stunning, three double bedroom, two-bathroom period conversion positioned across the top two floors of this handsome Victorian building on Adolphus Road, a highly sought after and mature residential street in N4. Standing at 1,175 sqft and having been entirely renovated in 2018, the property benefits from some beautiful period charm whilst having the modern and practical living space throughout. There is a wealth of natural light in each room and with two separate levels of living space, you really get that sense of a family home. Accommodation comprises of a wonderfully spacious living room/kitchen that creates the perfect entertaining space. All three bedrooms are good sizes, two on the first floor with another positioned on the second floor, which has the advantage of a fully fitted ensuite and the all-important storage cupboards that have significant depth. The main bathroom is beautifully designed and completes the internal accommodation. This would make an excellent home for any end user or long-term investment, whilst it is also offered to the market with a share of the freehold. No description of this property would be complete without mention of the amazing private garden that is sectioned off with access through a locked door. This makes it perfect for the growing family and the green fingered.

Adolphus Road is situated in a sought-after residential area in North Highbury and offers an abundance of transport links and opportunities. The nearby Woodberry Down reservoirs provide a tranquil walk or canoe and sailing classes, whilst Clissold Park and Finsbury Park both allow generous green spaces and opportunity for numerous sports activities, alongside the Castle climbing centre. Tube access is easy, being only a short walking distance from Finsbury Park station (Piccadilly line, Victoria line and National Rail) with Manor House and Arsenal also close by, whilst numerous bus links provide easy access to the City and West End.
