DESCRIPTION

Set within an elegant, double-fronted Victorian house, this charming one-bedroom period conversion has been well maintained and offers a well-proportioned layout with characterful features and a bright, airy feel. The spacious living area is enhanced by a skylight, flooding the room with natural light, while the high ceilings and neutral décor contribute to its inviting atmosphere. The separate fitted kitchen provides a practical space with ample cabinetry and integrated appliances, making it both functional and stylish.

The bedroom is well-sized, benefiting from built-in storage, and the property also includes a modern bathroom with contemporary fittings. An added advantage is the demised loft space, offering valuable additional storage.

Externally, residents enjoy access to a well-maintained communal garden, providing a peaceful outdoor retreat, as well as a designated parking space at the front of the property. The home has been carefully looked after, ensuring it remains in excellent condition for its next owner.

Situated in a prime location, the property is within easy reach of Streatham Hill, West Norwood, and Streatham (Thameslink) stations, offering excellent links into the City and West End. The surrounding area boasts a variety of shops, cafes, restaurants, and gyms, as well as highly sought-after schools, making this an ideal choice for first-time buyers and investors alike.

The property also benefits from a long lease and a share of freehold, offering added security and long-term value.
