- Available furnished from April

A charming and beautifully presented first floor period flat, ideally located on Pinfold Road, Streatham SW16. This bright and spacious two-bedroom home is in great condition throughout and offers a wonderful blend of character and modern living. The impressive living room is positioned on the upper level and features a lovely bay window with a built-in window seat, creating the perfect spot for reading, relaxing, or informal dining while enjoying an abundance of natural light. A modern, well-maintained kitchen sits just off the reception space, providing a practical layout and ample storage. The layout is thoughtfully arranged over two internal levels, with the living space and one bedroom on the upper level. A short set of internal steps leads down to the second double bedroom and the bathroom on the lower level, creating a great sense of flow and separation without the bedrooms feeling “upstairs” as such. Positioned in a highly convenient Streatham location, the flat is moments from the wide range of restaurants, cafés, and local amenities along Streatham High Road. Excellent transport links are close by, with Streatham and Streatham Hill stations providing swift connections into Central London, making this an ideal home for professionals and commuters alike. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the charm, brightness, and superb location of this attractive period property. Available from 6 April 2026 and offered furnished. Positioned in a highly convenient Streatham location, the flat is moments from the wide range of restaurants, cafés, and local amenities along Streatham High Road. Excellent transport links are close by, with Streatham and Streatham Hill stations providing swift connections into Central London, making this an ideal home for professionals and commuters alike.
