DESCRIPTION:

Occupying the upper floors of a handsome Victorian building, this spacious and stylish three-bedroom home offers a characterful retreat in the heart of Herne Hill.

Bathed in natural light, the home spans two beautifully presented levels. The reception room, located at the front of the property, features a striking bay window, original floorboards, and ample space for entertaining or relaxing. A sleek, well-appointed kitchen sits separately to the rear, blending modern finishes with charm and practicality.

Across the upper floors are three generous bedrooms, each thoughtfully arranged to offer versatility and comfort. A contemporary bathroom, finished to a high standard, serves the home, while additional touches—like the integrated projector in the living space—enhance its appeal.

The property also benefits from ownership of the freehold, adding long-term value and flexibility for the new owner.

Ideally positioned on a peaceful residential street, Lowden Road is just a short stroll from Herne Hill station, with direct connections to central London. The vibrant high street is packed with independent shops, welcoming pubs, and restaurants, while the iconic Brockwell Park and its Art Deco Lido are moments away.
