DESCRIPTION

Located in a tranquil, semi-rural position is this superb detached cottage set in gardens approaching one acre, with a separate home office/annexe and oak framed car port.

The cottage is situated within easy reach of the village cricket green, pub and local amenities including the nearby village shop. The property was built in 2011, constructed in a traditional style from Bradstone whilst offering the benefits of contemporary living.

Ground floor accommodation comprises large entrance hallway leading to the family/dining room with French doors opening on to patio. The sitting room is a comfortable space with a wood burning stove and French doors. The well-appointed kitchen/breakfast room has been fitted with traditional cabinetry with a stable door to gardens. Adjoining the kitchen is a versatile and spacious utility/boot room and a cloakroom.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom has an en suite and a particular feature is the balcony with wonderful views across the gardens. From the gallery landing are two further double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

The beautifully landscaped gardens are private and well screened being framed by mature trees. There is large area of level lawn and the gardens have been well stocked with mature shrubs and plants. To the rear, the patio extends the length of the property, an ideal space for entertaining. To the front of the property is a large gravel driveway with ample parking, detached oak framed garaging with a separate home office/annexe and shed. The cottage has the benefit of a large ancillary barn with own access currently used as storage. From here, there is direct access into the neighbouring woodland.

LOCATION

The property is situated towards the end Fullers Vale in a preferable, tucked away position. The villages of Headley Down, Headley, Arford and Grayshott are nearby providing a range of local shops, public houses, recreation grounds and churches. There is a wide choice of state and private schools within the vicinity, including Bohunt School, Alton College, St. Edmunds, Highfield and Churchers College. The village of Headley Down is ideally placed for participation in a wide range of outdoor pursuits including riding, walking and sailing. A comprehensive range of amenities can be found nearby in Farnham, Haslemere and Liphook. There is a direct rail service to London Waterloo from these three towns and the A3 is located within four miles giving access to the South coast, Guildford and London.
