DESCRIPTION:

A stylishly refurbished two-bedroom flat located in a prime Streatham position, just moments from Streatham Hill Station.

Tucked slightly back from the High Road, this beautifully presented home enjoys reduced noise exposure while being surrounded by a wealth of local amenities—gyms, supermarkets, restaurants, and boutique shops are all on your doorstep.

Inside, the flat features its original solid wood parquet flooring, lending warmth and character throughout. The open-plan living space is bright and spacious, enhanced by good ceiling height and dual-aspect glazing. A south-facing balcony offers a charming spot to enjoy morning light or evening air.

The modern kitchen is well-appointed with contemporary appliances, a stylish marble-effect peninsula, and a sociable breakfast bar—perfect for casual meals or entertaining guests. A newly renovated family bathroom provides a sleek sanctuary with a generous walk-in shower, separate full-size bathtub, a feature vanity unit, and on-trend patterned floor tiles paired with elegant herringbone wall tiling.

Both bedrooms include built-in storage, with the principal bedroom being especially large and benefitting from a bespoke wall-mounted headboard. Throughout the flat, storage is plentiful, making it as practical as it is stylish.

Situated on Streatham High Road, the flat enjoys an unbeatable location with Streatham Hill Station just a short stroll away—providing swift links to Clapham Junction and Victoria. The area is well-connected by numerous bus routes and is known for its vibrant high street atmosphere, with independent cafés, gyms, and everyday essentials at your fingertips. Whether you're heading into central London or enjoying the local scene, this well-placed home offers the best of both convenience and community living.
