Designed by the renowned Scandinavian architectural firm C.F. Møller, this beautifully presented one-bedroom apartment offers a sophisticated blend of modern design, practicality, and light-filled living spaces. With a private balcony and access to a landscaped communal roof terrace boasting panoramic views across London, this home is an ideal retreat in one of South London's most sought-after locations.

Positioned on the second floor of a contemporary purpose-built development, the apartment benefits from expansive glazing, ensuring an abundance of natural light throughout the day. The open-plan living and dining area is stylish yet functional, with floor-to-ceiling glass doors seamlessly connecting the indoor space to the private balcony, perfect for morning coffee or winding down in the evening. The sleek, fully integrated kitchen has been designed with both aesthetics and efficiency in mind, offering ample storage and workspace—ideal for home cooking and entertaining. The spacious double bedroom features built-in storage, while the contemporary bathroom is finished with high-quality fixtures and fittings. Additional features include wood flooring, a neutral décor palette, and a secure entry system.

Residents of Kerin House enjoy more than just a home; they become part of a well-connected, design-conscious community. The landscaped communal roof terrace is not only a peaceful retreat with uninterrupted city views but also a space where neighbours can come together, fostering a welcoming atmosphere rarely found in modern developments. Ideally situated, the property is a short stroll from Herne Hill Station (Zone 2), providing quick links to London Victoria, Blackfriars, and Farringdon. The vibrant Herne Hill Village is moments away, offering a fantastic selection of independent cafés, boutique shops, and artisan bakeries. For outdoor lovers, Brockwell Park and its historic Lido are just around the corner, offering acres of green space, sports facilities, and a thriving weekend farmers' market.
