DESCRIPTION:

Upon entering, you are welcomed into a bright and stylish kitchen/dining room featuring modern fitted units, ample surface space, and integrated appliances. The generous layout comfortably accommodates a dining table, creating the perfect space for family meals or entertaining.

Across the hallway sits a versatile reception room, currently used as a playroom but equally suitable as a home office, gym, music room, or secondary lounge. French doors provide direct access to the rear garden, filling the space with natural light. A downstairs WC completes the ground floor accommodation.

The first floor boasts a spacious and inviting living room with elegant French doors opening onto a Juliet balcony, offering a charming outlook over the development. This floor also includes a beautifully presented family bathroom and a generous double bedroom, ideal for guests or older children.

The top floor is home to the master suite, featuring built-in wardrobes and a stylish en-suite shower room. Also on this level is a third bedroom, perfectly suited as a child's room, nursery, or home office providing excellent flexibility for a growing family.

To the rear, the enclosed garden offers a tranquil and low-maintenance outdoor space, featuring a patio ideal for dining or relaxation, a level lawn, and a handy storage shed. The property benefits from two allocated parking spaces, conveniently positioned for easy access.

This elegant modern home combines the security and exclusivity of a gated development with the warmth and practicality of family living. With excellent school catchments, modern interiors, and a prime Wokingham location, this property is perfect for those seeking a stylish and welcoming home in a sought-after setting.
