Winkworth

for every step...

A charming two-bedroom period house ideally situated on this quiet residential street in the heart of Southfields, within easy reach of the Tube and the shops, cafés and restaurants of Replingham Road.

The property is beautifully presented throughout, offering a bright front reception room with wood flooring, feature fireplace and bespoke shelving. To the rear is a spacious kitchen/dining room fitted with contemporary white units, integrated appliances and solid wood flooring, leading through to a modern tiled bathroom.

Upstairs are two generous double bedrooms, both with plantation shutters, and a smaller third room ideal as a home office, dressing room or nursery.

The rear garden is a lovely, secluded space with mature planting and a patio area perfect for outdoor dining and entertaining.

Located within proximity of Southfields Underground Station (District Line), King George's Park and the green open spaces of Wimbledon Park, this property offers the perfect balance of character, comfort and convenience.
