Description

This is a very rare and incredibly versatile opportunity to acquire a pair of Freehold Retail Units along the well-regarded Old Kent Road. The properties both enjoy highly visible and pretty glazed frontages with private entrances and excellent ceiling heights all set within this pair of handsome period buildings.

Internally, the units have been integrated to the rear, allowing for a flexible and free-flowing space as either one large double retail space with warehouse-style storage or potentially two, fully-independent premises. The internal condition is relatively basic with some charming exposed brickwork, rear loading via a roller shutter, security shutters to the front elevation and a small washroom

Location

Located on Old Kent Road, south east London's busiest thoroughfare. Many national companies are represented here including Aldi, Lidl, Asda, Currys PC World and Tesco. Massive regeneration plans are in hand with the potential extension of the Bakerloo Line nearby.
