Gunstone Mill is a stunning four-bedroom property that perfectly encapsulates the essence of rural living. The property is set in a tranquil location, surrounded by rolling countryside, yet conveniently located just a short drive from the charming market town of Crediton.

As you step into the property, a grand entrance hall welcomes you, and the ground floor unveils a series of living spaces, each meticulously crafted to showcase the rich heritage and character of the property. There is a downstairs toilet off the entrance hall. A generously proportioned sitting room offers an inviting open fireplace, while the formal dining room boasts the rustic charm of exposed wooden beams, adding warmth and character to every gathering. A cozy study offers a tranquil retreat for work or relaxation and the bespoke country kitchen stands as the epitome of rustic elegance, featuring an inviting island unit, complemented by the comforting glow of a log-burning stove. A double oven, integrated hob, and charming breakfast area complete this culinary haven, inviting you to indulge in the timeless pleasures of country living.

Upstairs, the master bedroom offers a peaceful escape characterized by its lofty vaulted ceilings, flooding the space with natural light and a sense of openness. This serene retreat features a lavish en-suite bathroom and ample storage, blending luxury with functionality seamlessly. Continuing your journey, you'll find three more spacious double bedrooms, each exuding comfort and charm, the two largest bedrooms both have en-suites and there is also a family bathroom. Adding to the home's allure, a charming gallery overlooks the inviting sitting room below, adding a touch of architectural elegance and providing a cozy spot for relaxation and reflection.

The exterior of the property is equally captivating, featuring extensive landscaped gardens adorned with mature trees, including apple, pear, peach and plum trees, in addition to a diverse array of planting borders and beds. There are also raspberry, blackcurrant and gooseberry bushes. Multiple seating areas are thoughtfully placed to allow you to fully appreciate the serene surroundings. There is also a potting shed, a greenhouse, and a little hut on the island. Adding to the charm, the River Yeo forms the boundary of the property, creating a picturesque wildlife haven where you can enjoy sightings of brown trout, kingfishers, dippers, and otters.

Of particular note is the spacious cellar, which offers tremendous potential for a variety of uses. The current owners use this versatile space for woodworking and storage, but it could easily be adapted for numerous hobbies or work from home businesses.

The property boasts an expansive parking area on the north side, offering effortless access to an impressive 40-foot carport. This substantial space not only ensures ample parking for multiple vehicles but also provides versatile options for storage and additional uses.
