Wilcot is a pretty Wiltshire village centred around a traditional village green with a great public house The Golden Swan, cricket club and the Holy Cross Church. The Kennet and Avon canal passes through the village. Wilcot lies about 1½ miles from the small market town of Pewsey, which offers a good range of services for day-to-day needs including a Co op, and the rail station with services to London Paddington. The larger market town of Marlborough (about 7 miles) offers a wide range of facilities and the larger centres of Salisbury, Andover, Newbury and Swindon are within easy striking distance. The M4 motorway lies to the north and the A303 (M3) to the south. The surrounding countryside is designated as an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

There is good schooling in the area with Woodborough CofE Primary just 3.4 miles and St Mary's and Preshute Primary located in Marlborough 10.1miles. St Francis Private option is located in nearby Pewsey. Pewsey Vale and St Johns Academy in Marlborough offer secondary options or Marlborough College and Dauntseys for Private.
