This attractive family home extends to over 2500ft², and features flexible, well proportioned accommodation arranged over 2 floors and, with some modification, the ground floor could provide a self-contained annexe with lounge, kitchen, bedroom and shower room.

The property has recently undergone a programme of redecoration and refurbishment, and has a modern fitted kitchen with integrated appliances, oil fired central heating system, UPVC double glazing and private drainage. There is an attractive, south facing rear garden with a large patio. An additional area of field is currently held on a short term licence from the adjacent landowner and is not included in the sale.

A covered entrance porch leads to a spacious lower hall with an engineered oak floor. There is a cloak-room with WC and wash basin – the former shower has been removed.

At ground floor level there is a large, dual aspect family room and a spacious utility/boot room with an excellent range of storage cupboards, Grant oil fired central heating boiler, sink, space and plumbing for washing machine, space for tumble dryer, Stoves hob, Lamona electric oven, space for fridge and freezer, personal door to the garage, and door to outside.

From the lower hall, stairs lead to the upper level where there is an L-shaped hall with a large window giving lovely country views to the front, built-in coat and airing cupboards, and a loft access.

The generously sized sitting room includes an engineered oak floor, a wood burning stove, and offers delightful views over open countryside to the front.

A walkway leads to an open plan kitchen/dining room with patio door to the rear garden, contemporary kitchen units and worktops, integrated larder fridge, Neff induction hob and electric double oven, extractor, and further door to the garden.

3 of the 4 bedrooms have fitted wardrobes, and the principal bedroom has an en suite shower room. There is also a fully tiled family bath/shower room with bath (with shower attachment), wash basin, shower, WC and electric shaver point.

The driveway provides ample off road parking and leads to an integral double garage with 2 up-and-over doors, 2 side windows, power and lighting.

Gates at either side of the property lead to the neatly maintained rear garden which has a large patio (with lighting) adjacent to the house, water tap, external power points, lawn, raised stone shrub beds, timber shed and a woodstore. Steps lead to an additional area of land currently held on a short term licence basis.

Location: Gussage St Michael is a pretty village tucked away from main roads in a chalk valley within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, about 10 miles from Blandford Forum and 14 miles from Salisbury.

DISCLAIMER:

Winkworth wishes to inform prospective buyers that these particulars are a guide and act as information only. All our details are given in good faith and believed to be correct at the time of issue but they don't form part of an offer or contract. No Winkworth employee has authority to make or give any representation or warranty in relation to this property. All fixtures and fittings, whether fitted or not are deemed removable by the vendor unless stated otherwise and room sizes are measured between internal wall surfaces, including furnishings.

It has a medieval parish church and a village hall. There is a pub (The Cockerel Inn) in the nearby sister village of Gussage All Saints. The historic town of Wimborne Minster, about 9 miles away, offers a wide range of amenities, and the coastal town of Poole and the city of Salisbury, both of which have mainline rail links to London Waterloo, are within about 30 minutes' drive. The conservation village of Cranborne, on the fringe of the Cranborne Chase, has shops, schools and pubs.

Directions: From Wimborne, proceed north on the B3078 towards Cranborne for approximately 5 miles. Turn left at The Horton Inn, and proceed over a stone bridge. Continue towards the Blandford-Salisbury Road and, after about 3.5 miles, turn right, signposted to Gussage St Michael. Proceed down Parsonage Hill to the bottom of the hill, and turn left into Manor Road. Hillview can be found after a short distance, on the left hand side.
