DESCRIPTION

Connaught Mansions is an impressive Grade I Listed development of apartments, ideally located on Great Pulteney Street and providing excellent level access into Bath city centre with local shops and amenities on the doorstep including Waitrose, a chemist, hairdressers, restaurants and bars, the Holburne Museum and plenty of green spaces nearby at Sydney Gardens and Henrietta Gardens.

The building features grand communal areas, including a ground floor reception area, impressive hallway and staircases with the beneficial feature of lift access.

This light and spacious first floor apartment overlooks Great Pulteney Street and comprises a hall with storage cupboard, two double bedrooms, bathroom, kitchen and a grand sitting/dining room, perfect for entertaining. The apartment benefits from high ceilings, period features and sash windows. There is a well-equipped kitchen with units either side and the bathroom has a full-length bath with shower over and wash hand basin vanity unit and WC.

The property also has the added benefit of a private parking space at the rear.

Bath is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, well known for its Georgian architecture and Roman history, and provides a rich array of entertainment and cultural facilities. The city boasts two universities and many well-regarded state and independent schools.
