An impressive, two double bedroom split level apartment situated within the heart of Pimlico. The property is arranged over the ground and first floor of this impressive period property. There is a magnificent 30' reception/ dining room which provides a wonderful environment to entertain and dine and there's a modern, separate fitted kitchen. The generous master bedroom benefits from an abundance of built in storage with en-suite bathroom and there's a further double bedroom on the first floor with its own private bathroom. In addition there is a superb private roof terrace which is perfect for alfresco dining.

The property is conveniently located for the amenities of Wilton Road, Warwick Way and the transport links at Pimlico Underground and Victoria Station.

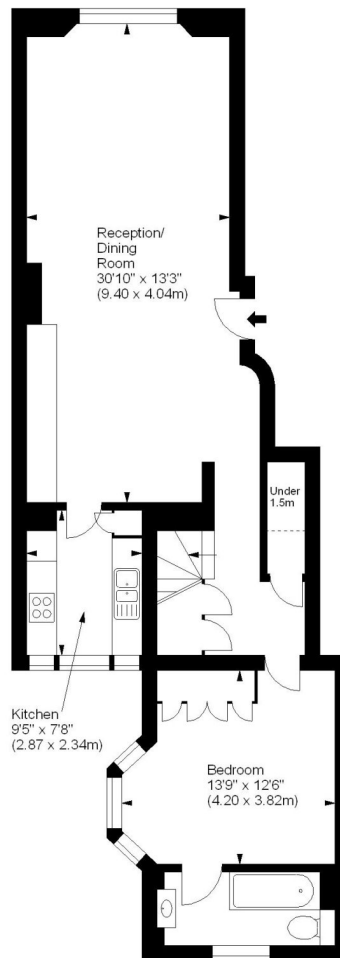

* Please note the furniture in the photographs was from the previous owners and is no longer in the property *
