This is a wonderful apartment, and your immediate viewing is a must. There is no chain.

The Latin Quarter is a selection of 7 new and refurbished contemporary apartments located just 285 metres from Deptford Bridge DLR and just a 15 minute walk in the heart of West Greenwich. Greenwich is the home of Greenwich mean time and the meridian line and one of London's prettiest locations. It maintains a quaint rural village feel and is steeped in history from the old Royal Naval Hospital, the Royal Observatory, the National Maritime Museum, and the spectacularly restored Cutty Sark' the last of the great tea clippers. Greenwich's covered market is one of London's best and attracts people from all over the capital. It offers wares from local artist-makers, fashion designers, foodies and antiques traders. Greenwich Park is 975 metres away, Blackheath Common 1.2km and Blackheath Village with its array of boutiques, bars, restaurants and farmers market beyond. There are fantastic transport links, including tube, DLR, mainline rail, Overground tube, bus, riverboat, foot tunnel and cable car. The area is mere minutes from Canary Wharf, The City and Central London; just one of the reasons why it's increasingly popular with young professionals and commuters. The O2 is close by along with a huge selection of shops at Greenwich peninsula.

This floorplan is for illustration purposes only and is not to scale. The position and size of doors, windows, appliances and other features are approximate. Any lease and service charge details have been provided by the vendor. Any interest party should have these checked by a solicitor as part of the purchase process.
