DESCRIPTION

The property is a pretty cottage with painted brick elevations under a tiled roof and accommodation over two floors. The position of the house is truly exceptional with Petersfield Town Centre only a stone's throw away. There is a delightful aspect overlooking a small green to the front with period houses beyond, and distant views of the South Downs to the rear. Internally, accommodation comprises of two reception rooms, a kitchen, downstairs w/c and a back porch with access to the garden. Stairs rise to the landing, off which are two bedrooms and a family bathroom. Outside, the garden to the rear is laid to lawn although would benefit from a general tidy. Currently open with neighbours, most buyers may want to consider enclosing with fencing or hedging and being on the south side, would get plenty of sun in the relevant seasons. At the bottom of the garden is a single garage in a block, in front of which is a right of way accessing a neighbours garage and parking area. Whilst the cottage has been loved over the years, it does now require general updating throughout.
