Rural living. Modern comfort.
Exceptional connections.

A wonderful family home set on elevated position in the popular rural village of Farley Hill with a stunning plot of around 1.5 acres.

Farley Hill is a picturesque village on the outskirts of Reading, set within the rural parish of Swallowfield. Surrounded by open countryside, mature woodland and historic properties like Farley Hall and Farley Court, the village offers a peaceful, community- oriented lifestyle. At its heart is the Victory Hall, a historic community hub that hosts local events and activities throughout the year. The village green and nearby walking trails provide opportunities for outdoor recreation, while the surrounding area is dotted with bridleways and scenic routes ideal for walkers, cyclists, and nature lovers.

Families are well-served by the local Farley Hill Primary School, a welcoming and well- rated school known for its strong community feel. Secondary schools, including Bohunt Wokingham and Oakbank, are located in neighbouring areas and are easily accessible.

Though Farley Hill enjoys a rural feel, transport links are convenient, with nearby train stations offering direct services to Reading and London, and bus routes connecting to local towns. The M3 and M4 motorways are also within easy reach, making commuting straightforward. For leisure, residents can take advantage of the cultural, shopping and dining offerings in Reading, while still enjoying the tranquillity and charm of village life.

The property has been completely remodelled by the current owners and is finished to a high standard throughout.

There is also scope and potential to extend further, subject to the usual planning permissions, as the property has previously had planning which has now lapsed.

To the ground floor, there is a spacious hallway with feature spiral staircase leading to the first floor. From the hallway, you have access to the family room, utility room, cloakroom and sitting room. You also have access to the wonderful, refitted kitchen/ breakfast room, with doors to and views over the beautiful rear garden. Off the kitchen is the dining room, which also leads through to the sitting room.

To the first floor, the master bedroom has an en-suite. There are four further good- sized bedrooms, and en-suite to bedroom two and a family bathroom. Outside, the grounds extend around the side and the rear of the property and is mainly laid to lawn with stunning views. This wonderful plot is around 1.5 acres.
