WATER LANE, WILTSHIRE, SP2 7TE

This beautiful three-bedroom home, just off Water Lane, presents a rare opportunity to acquire a charming and character-filled property nestled within its own delightful south-facing walled garden.

The entrance porch, framed by a flourishing clematis, leads into a welcoming hallway with stairs rising to the first floor. The country-style kitchen is warm and inviting, featuring a Rayburn stove and a cosy seating area that enjoys delightful views over the garden. Of particular note is a well-placed window offering a picturesque vantage point of the river and the peaceful surroundings perfect for watching the world go by.

A utility room provides ample space for white goods, and generous under-stairs storage. The sitting room, which also overlooks the garden, opens through wooden doors into a sun-filled conservatory, creating a seamless transition between indoors and out. Double doors from the conservatory lead directly to the garden, perfect for quiet enjoyment.

Upstairs, the home offers a family shower room, a third bedroom currently used as a study with views over the garden and towards Salisbury Cathedral, and a further double bedroom with recessed shelving. The principal bedroom, features dual-aspect windows and fitted wardrobes, filling the space with natural light.

Outside, the south-facing garden is a true haven, bordered with mature, well-established planting that offers vibrant colour throughout the seasons. A raised terrace provides a charming seating area for outdoor dining and entertaining. An external studio with power and lighting, once used as a home office, sits alongside a greenhouse and a wooden storage shed, completing this serene outdoor space.

A side gate offers direct access to Water Lane, making this the perfect retreat for those seeking peace and privacy while still being just moments from Elizabeth Gardens, the city centre, and Salisbury train station.

A truly special home that must be viewed to be fully appreciated.

LOCATION

Water Lane is ideally located within a short walk of the highly desirable Queen Elizabeth Gardens, Salisbury city centre, and the mainline railway station, which offers a direct service to London Waterloo in approximately 80 minutes.

Fisherton Street, a vibrant part of the city, is nearby and features an eclectic mix of contemporary restaurants, international cuisine, and independent cafés, making it a popular destination for locals and visitors alike.

Salisbury boasts a twice-weekly charter market, the renowned Playhouse Theatre, two cinemas and a wide range of shopping and recreational amenities.

The city also offers excellent road connections. It provides convenient access to the south coast, Bath, Winchester, and Southampton, while the nearby A303 links to the M3, offering smooth travel to London and westward towards Exeter and the West Country.

DIRECTIONS

What3Words - quit.deal.plenty

Alternatively, if travelling on foot, proceed away from the city centre along Fisherton Street, and Water Lane can be found on the left-hand side.
