DESCRIPTION: A two-minute walk from Piccadilly Circus, this super bright two-bedroom two-bathroom is a spacious New York type of loft conversion (originally Charlie Chester's Casino, a favourite haunt for the Kray brothers) and offers over 1,000sq ft of living space along with a lovely sun-splashed (well, it's London, so, occasionally sunny) terrace. There are large windows on all four sides of the flat, newly installed wood floors, a super large sitting room and two well-sized bedrooms (one en-suite). Infused with old Soho character, this second story flat makes for a perfect home for someone uninterested in a boxy, cookie-cutter flat. For movie fans, think of the flat Glenda Jackson and George Segal rented for their trysts in A Touch of Class.
