DESCRIPTION:

Set within a former cinema building, this unique one-bedroom apartment offers a compelling blend of mid-century flair and contemporary practicality. Designed across 847 sq. ft., the home unfolds across a generous living and dining area, cleverly zoned for lounging, entertaining, and working.

At its heart, the open-plan reception leads seamlessly onto a covered balcony—perfect for potted greenery, morning coffee, or a quiet read, come rain or shine. Fold-back doors reveal a second reception space, ideal for a home office, music nook, or snug.

The bedroom is well proportioned, with space for a king-sized bed, reading corner, and ample storage, while the adjacent bathroom is sleek and functional. A separate kitchen sits just off the dining area, tucked away but convenient, with everything you need for everyday cooking or hosting.

Located moments from Streatham Hill Station, with Brixton and Clapham both easily accessible, this apartment is ideal for those who crave space, character, and connectivity in equal measure.
