

The Harrow Way Basingstoke RG22 4BX

Description

Now where do you begin with this impressive standalone property, with accommodation over three floors plus sitting on a generous plot behind gates it is one not to be missed.

The ground floor begins with a good size entrance hall. At the front there are two reception rooms, the living room which has a feature fireplace and walkway leading through to the extensive open plan dining area and fully fitted kitchen. To the other side of property there is a family room, study and downstairs cloakroom.

The kitchen and dining area is the hub of this home with appliances and a central island with an induction hob plus plenty of storage cupboards. There are bi-fold doors across the back leading out to the enclosed garden.

Over the next two floors there are five double bedrooms, two of which could be used with a separate living area as a self-contained annexe with its own front door.

Outside there is an enclosed 'L' shaped lawn with a decking area. There is a double garage with electric doors. The driveway has parking for numerous vehicles and an electric car charging point. The property also benefits from solar panels and a whole array of other tech features throughout.
