Guide Price £750,000-£775,000. A delightful two-bedroom Victorian mid-terraced home, measuring circa 962 sq ft, perfectly positioned on a pretty and quiet road in East Greenwich—just moments from the Royal Park and within easy reach of Maze Hill rail and the vibrant town centre. Offered in lovely condition and chain free, this charming period property blends character features with modern touches throughout.

The ground floor features a superb 23ft double reception room, complete with fireplace, bespoke fitted shelving and storage, window shutters, and hardwood flooring. This inviting space leads seamlessly into a well-appointed kitchen/breakfast room, with bi-fold doors opening onto a paved and walled courtyard garden, ideal for low-maintenance outdoor enjoyment. A spacious family bathroom with shower cubicle and skylight completes the downstairs accommodation.

Upstairs, there are two generous double bedrooms. Bedroom One benefits from fitted wardrobes. There may also be potential to convert the attic, subject to the usual planning permissions and building regulations. Additional features include new windows to the front of the house and an air-conditioning unit on the top-floor landing, ensuring comfort year-round.

This highly sought-after residential road sits just off Trafalgar Road, offering immediate access to the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Maritime Greenwich, including the Royal Observatory, the historic Park, and the stunning architectural landmarks that define the area. Maze Hill mainline station is only a short walk away, providing fast connections into central London, while Greenwich town centre, with its bustling market, independent shops, restaurants, DLR, and riverboat services, is also easily reached.

The home is equally well placed for the O2 Arena, with its world-class entertainment, dining, and retail offerings—making this an exceptional opportunity to enjoy the very best of Greenwich living.
