for every step...

A spacious garden flat with planning permission granted for a single-storey ground floor extension, presenting a fantastic opportunity to increase living space. The property is currently arranged across the entire ground floor of an end-of-terrace Edwardian house located in a sought-after area close to Hazelwood Primary School, within easy reach of Palmers Green overground station and an excellent selection of cafés and restaurants along Green Lanes.

Offered for sale chain-free, accommodation comprises a front reception room, a double bedroom, and a dining room which could be used as a reception room. You will also find a kitchen and a bathroom at the rear of the property. Some of the rooms feature stripped wood flooring, while the entrance hall benefits from original tessellated tiled flooring, adding charm and character to the property.

Externally, the property boasts a private rear garden extending just under 90 feet in length, with the added benefit of side access.

While the property requires modernisation, it offers excellent potential to personalise to one's own requirements.
