DESCRIPTION

The property is a pretty, detached period cottage with brick and flint elevations under a slate roof and accommodation over two floors. The layout can be seen in the floorplan and of particular note is the wonderful reception space with plenty of windows ensuring light flows through the accommodation. Outside, the house is approached by a long drive leading to a gravel parking area and a detached garage. The main portion of the garden is on the south side of the house and is largely laid to lawn with a variety of mature shrubs, borders and hedging and on the west side of the house is a small paddock. In all, the property lies in a plot of approximately 2.2 acres. The current owners have been at the house for the past 35 years or so and you can see why they've been settled for such a long time and whilst it has been loved, the house would benefit from some alterations and updating.

ACCOMMODATION

Main bedroom with dressing room and en suite/ family shower room, separate family bathroom, three further bedrooms (one with an adjoining WC), three reception rooms, kitchen/breakfast room, entrance hall, downstairs cloakroom with WC, utility room, garage, garden and paddock.

In all, approximately 2.2 acres. The driveway is accessed along a public footpath that then continues along the northern boundary of the property. Holmewood Cottage is the only property that this driveway services.

LOCATION

The property is situated in the village of Stroud where there is a popular village primary school and pub. Petersfield is less than two miles to the east and offers a variety of amenities in a bustling town centre. Shops include Waitrose, M&S Food and Tesco and there are numerous boutiques, cafes and further shops. The train station provides a direct service to London Waterloo to the north (in approximately an hour) and Portsmouth to the south. The tunnel at Hindhead provides congestion free travel north along the A3 to Guildford and London. The area has many active clubs and societies with golf available at Petersfield and Liphook, horse and motor racing at Goodwood, polo at Cowdray Park and sailing along the South Coast. There are many popular schools locally including The Petersfield School (TPS), Churcher's College, Bedales and Ditcham Park.
