DESCRIPTION

Positioned on the second floor of a purpose-built block, the home opens into a wide, central reception hall that offers an immediate sense of space and seamlessly connects every principal room. Multiple large, built-in storage cupboards line the corridor, maximizing practical utility.

Immediately off the hallway, the expansive living and dining area pairs generous proportions with distinct architectural character. Rich interior styling is complemented by an exposed brick feature wall, a focal fireplace detail, and custom built-in bookcases that elevate both the function and aesthetic of the space.

The separate, fully fitted kitchen maximizes functionality with extensive worktop space, a gas cooker, an integrated washing machine, and a full-sized fridge-freezer.

Further down the hallway, the main bathroom is fully equipped with a classic layout, featuring a full-sized bathtub, a standalone pedestal sink, and WC.

Peacefully positioned at the rear of the property, both double bedrooms offer comfortable proportions with ample space for double beds and freestanding furnishings.

A short walk away, inside the gated Spencer Mews next door the property has a huge private garden.
