Moralee Close is a select enclave of 2 beautifully renovated character homes, original to the site and formerly home to 3 generations of the Moralee family, complemented by 8 attractive new build houses, in a sought after setting at the lower end of the exclusive Rowlands Hill. All of the homes provide a seamless blend of the classic and the contemporary.

A front door leads through to reception hall featuring Herringbone oak flooring, understairs cupboard, and a downstairs cloakroom. There is a spacious living room with French doors to the Sandstone patio, and a ground floor bedroom 4/study which is a double sized bedroom.

LOCATION: Rated as one of the best places to live in Dorset, Wimborne is a vibrant town proud of its famous Minster, founded in AD 705. It sets the standard for this historic market town which also boasts numerous elegant and charming Georgian buildings. The town hosts many events (including the world-renowned Wimborne Folk Festival in June), live music, comedy and drama at The Tivoli Theatre, and a wide variety of sport. There are state schools for all ages, and the surrounding area is well served by both grammar and independent schools.

Wimborne is situated just on the edge of Cranborne Chase, a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, covering 380 square miles. Getting out and about into beautiful open countryside studded with stately homes is simple, and there's plenty to offer those who enjoy walking, cycling, riding and stargazing. For water sports, the sandy beaches of Bournemouth and Poole are less than 10 miles away. The wilds of the Jurassic coast and The New Forest are only slightly further away. With all this within such effortless reach, it's no surprise that Wimborne is so popular. Transport links are good, including the A31 connecting with the M27 towards Southampton and London in one direction, and the West Country in the other. There are mainline railway stations in Poole and Bournemouth, and Bournemouth International Airport is about 8.5 miles away.
