The Finer Details

Upon arriving at Fairlawn Close, a spacious entrance hallway packed with period features including original cornicing, provides access to the downstairs accommodation and stairs to the cellars and upper floors.

Located to the front of the house, the generous sitting/drawing room has a large bay window at its centre which floods the room with natural light. The original ceiling rose and double height ceilings provide a hint of the former grandeur of this versatile living space.

The kitchen, accessed directly from the entrance hall, is beautifully in keeping with the character and age of the property. It boasts high ceilings, wooden flooring, a central fireplace, and a square bay window that invites an abundance of natural light. Modern conveniences include integrated gas hobs and an oven, as well as freestanding appliances such as a fridge/freezer, washing machine, dryer, and dishwasher. The boiler, located in the kitchen, has been recently replaced.

A central staircase leads up to a half-landing and the first-floor accommodation, where three bedrooms and a family bathroom are located.

The master bedroom is a sizeable double bedroom with two large double windows that look out towards Fairlawn Close and the gardens beyond. There are two further double bedrooms on the first floor, one of which benefits from a bay window, which would have previously been one bedroom but has been split to provide additional accommodation.

The family bathroom has been renovated in the past and benefits from a bath, separate shower, WC and stand basin. Bathroom cabinets provide additional storage.

Continuing to the top floor, a second flight of stairs leads to a charming attic bedroom with eaves storage and restricted ceiling height. A separate study is located off the landing and features a large Velux window and further eaves storage. A compact shower room with a lowered tray and sliding door, along with a WC, serves the second floor.

On the lower ground floor, accessed via the main hallway, is a substantial four-chamber, unconverted cellar—offering a fantastic opportunity for future development. With windows to the front and side, the cellar benefits from natural light and has previously had planning permission granted (now lapsed).

Externally, the property features a small front garden and terrace accessible from the main entrance. Additionally, two private off-street parking spaces are available along Fairlawn Close.

About the Area
