DESCRIPTION

Set within the sought-after Chapelier House on Eastfields Avenue, this beautifully presented two-bedroom ground floor apartment offers contemporary living in a prime riverside location.

The property spans approximately 775 sq. ft. (72 sq. m.) and features a bright and spacious open-plan kitchen/reception room (22'10" x 12'8"). The kitchen is fitted with modern appliances and sleek cabinetry, seamlessly blending style and functionality.

There are two well-proportioned double bedrooms, the larger measuring 12'9" x 11'8", both offering ample natural light and storage options. The apartment is further complemented by a modern family bathroom and an ensuite shower room. A standout feature is the generous private patio (40'6" x 13'9").

This apartment is perfect for professionals, couples, or small families looking for stylish living in a vibrant riverside community.

LOCATION

Chapelier House is perfectly positioned on Eastfields Avenue within the popular Riverside Quarter development in SW18. This thriving riverside neighbourhood offers a superb balance of tranquillity and city living, with leafy river walks, landscaped gardens, and a vibrant community atmosphere.

Residents are spoilt for choice with a wide selection of cafés, bars, and restaurants along the Thames Path, as well as easy access to the shops and amenities of Wandsworth Town and nearby Putney High Street.

Transport connections are outstanding, with Wandsworth Town (National Rail), Putney station and East Putney (District line) within easy reach, providing swift services into London Waterloo and Victoria. The Thames Clipper river bus service also operates from nearby Wandsworth Riverside Pier, offering a scenic and convenient commute into Central London and Canary Wharf. Local bus routes and cycle paths further enhance connectivity across the capital.
