DESCRIPTION

The ground floor comprises a welcoming lounge to the front with wood-effect flooring and a feature fireplace, leading through to a generous dining room which provides ample space for family dining and entertaining. From here, stairs lead to the upper floors and access is provided to the fitted kitchen, arranged in a practical galley style with a range of wall and base units, work surfaces and space for appliances. To the rear of the ground floor is a bathroom, fitted with a white suite including bath with shower over, wash hand basin and WC.

On the first floor, there are two well-proportioned bedrooms. The main bedroom is a spacious double with pleasant outlook and providing generous accommodation while the second bedroom is also a good-sized room suitable as a guest room or home office.

A further staircase leads to the second floor, where the property benefits from a third bedroom. This versatile space features a roof light, exposed floorboards and useful storage areas, making it ideal as a principal bedroom, additional room or flexible living space.

Externally, the property enjoys a private rear courtyard, providing low-maintenance outdoor space with access to an external store. To the front, the property forms part of a traditional brick terrace with on-street parking nearby.

Overall, this is a well-maintained home offering flexible accommodation over three floors, character appeal and excellent potential for a range of buyers. Early viewing is recommended.
