Set on one of Brixton's most desirable tree-lined roads, this beautifully presented four-bedroom Victorian home offers generous proportions, period charm, and a well-balanced layout across three floors—perfect for modern family life.

The ground floor features two elegant reception rooms, including a front lounge with bay window and decorative fireplace, and a rear reception with garden access—ideal as a formal dining space or second living area. A bright, extended breakfast kitchen sits to the rear with plenty of storage and workspace, and opens directly onto a private landscaped garden via French doors.
