DESCRIPTION:

A beautifully presented three-storey maisonette nestled in a secure, gated mews, perfectly positioned between the vibrant London Fields and the iconic Victoria Park. Offering spacious and versatile living across its various floors.

On the ground floor, you'll find a open-plan living and dining area. The layout flows effortlessly and benefits from well-proportioned spaces and natural light.

The first floor features a double bedroom and a family bathroom, along with a flexible study area — perfect for working from home or a guest room.

Upstairs, the entire top floor is dedicated to the principal bedroom suite, complete with a generous ensuite bathroom and a peaceful ambience.

Externally, the property includes a patio and benefits from its unique gated mews setting, offering both privacy and community spirit.

Situated within walking distance of excellent transport links (including London Fields and Hackney Central stations), trendy cafés, bars, restaurants, and the open green spaces of Victoria Park, this home is an exceptional find for urban living in one of East London's most sought-after neighbourhoods
