DESCRIPTION:

This lower ground floor property forms part of this sought after Mews Development and is a short walk to Reading's shops and Reading Station offering direct access to London Paddington in under 25 minutes. The property comprises a living room with a feature bay with a door opening into a private courtyard patio garden, a separate fitted kitchen, a bathroom and double bedroom. The property is accessed from its own front door into a landing with stairs leading down into the apartment. There is a study area at the bottom of the stairs ideal for home working. Further benefits include gas central heating and an allocated parking space to the rear of the property. This characterful apartment would suit a first time buyer, a downsizer or make a great investment and is being sold with no chain complications.
