DESCRIPTION:

The property boasts its own private ground floor entrance, opening onto a generously proportioned first floor. On the first floor are three good-sized bedroom. The smallest of the bedrooms has flexible use as a study but would also make an excellent third bedroom. The remaining two bedrooms are of equal size with one having built in wardrobes. Towards the rear there is a family style bathroom fitted with a separate bath and a shower. Adjacent to the bathroom is two large built in storage cupboards. At the rear of the first floor is the bright and open-planned modern kitchen. The second floor consists of a spacious, light and bright reception room with direct access to an exceptional private roof terrace which is perfect for entertaining and alfresco dining.

Turneville Road is a quiet residential street admired for its attractive Victorian terraces, neighbourly feel, and convenient location just off North End Road. The area offers an excellent mix of local shops, cafés, and amenities, with Fulham Broadway and West Kensington close by, while green spaces such as Normand Park provide leisure options. Residents benefit from good on-street parking, less through-traffic than surrounding roads, and excellent transport links via West Kensington, Barons Court, and West Brompton Underground stations, as well as numerous bus routes into Chelsea and central London.
