This beautifully renovated and impeccably presented home offers generous living space and an abundance of natural light throughout. The expansive double reception room, complete with elegant wooden flooring, flows seamlessly onto a stunning private west-facing garden—perfect for enjoying afternoon sun and al fresco dining. A sleek, fully-fitted modern kitchen provides both style and practicality, while the newly installed, spacious bathroom boasts a large bathtub with overhead shower.

There are two well-proportioned double bedrooms each feature ample built-in storage, and the property further benefits from a substantial cellar, ideal for additional storage needs.

Perfectly positioned on Chipstead Street—one of the most desirable, tree-lined roads within the prestigious Peterborough Estate—this home enjoys close proximity to the vibrant shops, cafés, and restaurants of the New King’s Road, as well as excellent local schools.
