Description:

A beautifully presented ground floor two double bedroom flat located one road back from the stunning Barton cliff top with its fabulous coastal views and access to the Beach below. The property is offered with a Share of Freehold.

The development was modernised back in 2023 with the current owners improving further with stylish alterations and additions.

The property is entered via its own private front door, leading to the entrance hall with attractive LVT flooring flowing into the living room and kitchen.

The lounge/diner is an appealing room, with a southerly aspect, bay window, large attractive media wall and access via patio doors to private patio.

The kitchen has been well designed with ample worksurface, integrated cooking appliances and fridge freezer. Off the kitchen is an extremely useful pantry style cupboard.

The two bedrooms are both good sizes and benefit from fitted wardrobes with the principal room having an en-suite bathroom. The family shower room completes the accommodation.

Outside the property has an area of patio directly from the living room and a seating area outside the bedroom window.

The flat has one allocated parking space.

Service charge: approx. £1554.60 pa
