LOCATION

The detached bungalow is situated in an elevated position within a residential cul-de-sac and the village is located in the much- favoured Bourne Valley to the East of Salisbury. There is a well- respected primary school close by and the property is within the Grammar school's catchment in the city. The Bourne Valley villages are well-supported with public transport and local amenities including a general convenience store in the village of Porton, public houses, Porton garden centre and local walks. The area is good for access to Salisbury in the south, Amesbury to the north and the A303 gives access to Basingstoke and London via the M3. The cathedral city itself has a superb selection of shops, amenities including two theatres, the Five Rivers leisure centre, two cinemas, a variety of sports and golf clubs and a mainline railway station with services to London Waterloo in approximately 90 minutes. A second train option is available for those commuting to the capital from the village of Grateley to the north.

DIRECTIONS

What3Words - rabble.processor.teaspoons

Leave Salisbury via the A30 London Road and continue passing the BMW car dealership. Proceed beneath the railway arch and at the roundabout take the first exit left as signposted The Winterbournes. Continue through the Winterbournes and at Policeman's Corner turn right as signposted Gomeldon. Follow this road for around half a mile and at the top of Gomeldon Hill turn right as signposted East Gomeldon. Continue along this road passing beneath the railway bridge, take the third turning on the right into Broadfield Road and head up the hill and the property will be found on the right-hand side, indicated with a Winkworth For Sale board.
