The property enjoys a convenient position within the village of Cadbury, with easy access to Crediton, Tiverton, and Exeter.

Inside, the property is well presented and spacious throughout, providing a practical layout suited to everyday living. There is scope for a buyer to update and personalise the accommodation to their own taste. The ground floor includes a light and welcoming living area and a well-sized kitchen with space for dining as well as an additional reception/dining room and useful utility area. Upstairs, there are three bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Outside, the property benefits from a good-sized enclosed rear garden, as well as lovely views across the surrounding countryside. There is a detached garage offering great additional storage as well as plenty of on road parking available.

Castle Cottages is an ideal home for buyers seeking a property in a peaceful rural setting while remaining within easy reach of nearby towns and the city.

NOTE: There is no allocated parking with this property.
