DESCRIPTION:

Set within a handsome Victorian building on a popular residential street just off Streatham Hill, this charming split-level garden flat offers a bright and well-proportioned home with huge potential. Spanning the lower and ground floors, the property features a leafy, south-facing garden and is offered to the market with no onward chain. The main reception room at the rear enjoys a peaceful garden aspect, with a bay window overlooking the greenery and French doors opening directly to the patio. A galley kitchen sits off this space, with a built-in counter pass-through into the living area. On the lower ground floor, a generous double bedroom with herringbone flooring offers a quiet retreat, alongside a bathroom with white metro tiles, built-in storage and a rainfall shower over the bath. The large garden offers rare outdoor space in a prime urban location. Tierney Road is ideally placed for access to Streatham Hill, Brixton, Clapham and Balham, with regular transport links and excellent shopping, restaurants and green open spaces such as Brockwell Park and Clapham Common all within easy reach.
