

Oakley Place, London, SE1

£525,000 Share of Freehold

This fantastic Victorian two-bed conversion in the Cobourg Road Conservation Area, on a quiet street within Burgess Park. EPC rating D

LOCATION

The property is located on Oakley Place and the local area boasts amenities including supermarkets, bars, pubs and restaurants. You are just a stones throw away from Burgess Park; Southwark's largest park, which stretches From Camberwell in the west to Peckham in the east and offer use of tennis courts, a bike track and a bandstand, not to mention the wide-open green spaces.

DESCRIPTION

As you enter the property, you're welcomed by a stunning open-plan living room and kitchen, featuring high ceilings and an abundance of natural light streaming through a large bay window at the front. The spacious living area comfortably accommodates freestanding furniture and is enhanced by a charming Victorian fireplace with built-in shelving on either side, offering both character and practical storage.

The kitchen is well-appointed with generous worktop space and ample storage, and it includes integrated appliances such as an induction hob, oven, fridge-freezer, and dishwasher. From here, you can access your own private, west-facing courtyard garden perfect for relaxing or entertaining.

The bathroom has been finished to a high standard and includes a walk-in shower, modern sink, WC, and a heated towel rail.

The first bedroom comfortably fits a double bed along with freestanding furniture, and it benefits from a large sash window that fills the space with natural light.

Located at the rear of the property, the master bedroom is generously sized and can easily accommodate a double bed and additional furniture. It also offers direct access to the courtyard garden through elegant double French doors.
