DESCRIPTION

Available to market for the first time in over 40 years is this detached, unlisted, period farmhouse. With brick, ironstone and tile-hung elevations under a slate and tiled roof, it has generous accommodation over two floors. As you can see from the floorplan, there's plenty of room for family and guests alike. The house has an array of period features which include exposed timbers, open fireplaces, sash windows and attached to the north side of the house is a single storey, self-contained annexe, built in 1988 and perfect for any multi-generational living or offering a proven and successful revenue stream. There is also the potential to convert the loft to provide additional space (STPP). Outside, the house is approached by a shared drive which leads to a private parking area and a detached, oak-framed garage/carport, built in 2018. The gardens are mainly laid to lawn and lie predominantly to the south side of the house. To fully appreciate the warmth and character the house has to offer, an internal viewing is strongly recommended.
